Unit II. Population and Migration – Population Policies
   B. Population growth and decline over time and space
      1. Historical trends and projections for the future
      4. Effects of national population policies: promoting population growth in some countries or reducing fertility rates in others

Rapid population growth in the 20th century led to concerns that population would exceed the earth’s ability to produce food. The United Nations held a series of Populations Conferences in 1974, 1984, and 1994 in which curbing population growth was strongly advocated. In the 21st century the population continues to grow, but many more developed states are experiencing declines in their populations creating a population paradox.

Countries to investigate population growth or decline and population policies:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Niger</th>
<th>Hungary</th>
<th>Indonesia</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bosnia-Hertzegovina</td>
<td>Ethiopia</td>
<td>Bangladesh</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brazil</td>
<td>Australia</td>
<td>Rwanda</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mexico</td>
<td>Thailand</td>
<td>Canada</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South Korea</td>
<td>Honduras</td>
<td>Spain</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sites to begin your investigation:

www.prb.org  World Population Data Sheet

Use the chart on the back of this page to guide your investigation.

Complete the chart

Create a Population Pyramid for 2010 and 2050

Include a world map (identify your country) and a physical/political map of your country.

Analyze your research to predict the future impact of population growth or decline in your country. Is there a potential Demographic Dividend for your country? What population policies would you suggest for your country?

Create ONE PowerPoint Slide with your information to present to the class.
